

Codes of conducts for visiting mangroves

1. Do not dig-up the sand, mud and rubbles
2. Do not overturn stones and boulders
3. Do not hunt or disturb any marine wildlife
4. Do not stand or trample on the root and seedlings of mangrove and seagrasses (which usually grow along the offshore margin of mangrove site)
5. Do not collect any live or dead specimens (photos or video taking are recommended)
6. Do not littering, take away your rubbish
7. Observe wetland quietly
8. Do not pollute mangrove substrate and water bodies
9. Respect our marine environment

