

Country and Marine Parks Board
Brief Background of Non-official Members
(1.9.2015 to 31.8.2017)

Chairman

Mr. TANG King-shing, GBS, PDSM

Mr. TANG King-shing joined The Hong Kong Police in 1976 and was appointed the Commissioner of Police in January 2007. He retired in January 2011. Mr. Tang holds a master degree in International and Public Affairs from The University of Hong Kong.

Member

Mr. CHAN Ka-chun

Mr. CHAN Ka-chun is the founder of HK Discovery, organized numerous large-scale ecotourism projects, including The Great Outdoors HK (HKTb), Green Olympics Charity Green Walk (BOCHK), Expeditions to the Arctic & Antarctic, and the publicity campaign to promote attractions in the 18 districts in Hong Kong (HAD2003).

Mr. CHAN Ka-kui, BBS, JP

Mr. CHAN Ka-kui is a Fellow Member of The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors. He has around 40 years of experience in the construction and surveying industry. He is a member of the Antiquities Advisory Board, Harbourfront Commission, Chairman of the Friends of Caritas, and an Adjunct Professor of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. Previously, Mr. CHAN had served as the Chairman of the Construction Industry Training Authority, a member of the Town Planning Board and other government advisory committees.

Ms. CHAN Po-kam, Beatrice

Ms. CHAN Po-kam, Beatrice is the Vice President of APAC Market & Business Development, SCA Asia Pacific. She also serves as a member of the Marketing Advisory Board.

Professor CHIU Lai-har, Rebecca, JP

Professor CHIU Lai-har, Rebecca is the Head of the Department of Urban Planning and Design, The University of Hong Kong, specializing in housing policy and urban sustainability in Asian cities. She was previously appointed to the Hong Kong Housing Authority, the Town Planning Board, the Land Building Advisory Committee, the Appeal Board of Environmental Impact Assessment, and the Appeal Board of Urban Renewal. Currently, she is a member of the Antiquities Advisory Board, the Appeal Board Panel (Town Planning) and the Licensing Appeal board.

Mr. CHOW Kwok-keung, Johnny

Mr. CHOW Kwok-keung, Johnny is the Chairman of the Hong Kong Hiking Association, China, the Council Member of Happy Valley Athletic Association, and the Lecturer (First Aid) of Hong Kong St. John Ambulance.

Ms. Suzanne M. GENDRON

Ms. Suzanne M. GENDRON is the Executive Director of Zoological Operations & Education, Ocean Park Corporation. Her responsibility is to oversee animal care and veterinary services, education and the conservation efforts for Ocean Park (1998 - present); Foundation Director, Ocean Park Conservation Foundation Hong Kong, with responsibility to manage the conservation efforts for the Foundation; Board member for the International Species Identification Systems (ISIS) and the Association of Zoos and Aquariums (AZA); and Committee member for the Aquarium, Membership and Conservation committees of the World Association of Zoos and Aquariums (WAZA), the Marine Mammal Taxon Advisory Group and Aquarium committees for the Association of Zoos and Aquarium (AZA) based in the USA, and the Zoo and Aquarium committee for the International Association of Amusement Parks and Attractions. She has over 37 years experience working in the field of animal care within zoos and aquariums.

Dr. HAU Chi-hang

Dr. Billy Hau is a terrestrial ecologist with special interests in forest restoration and biodiversity conservation. He has been teaching ecology at The University of Hong Kong since 2001.

Honourable HO Chun-yin, Steven, BBS

Honourable HO Chun-yin, Steven, BBS is the Legislative Council Member (Agriculture and Fisheries).

Ms. KIU Kin-yan, Judy

Ms. KIU Kin-yan, Judy is the Lecturer of Division of Applied Science and Technology, The Community of College of City University. She teaches Nature Conservation, Ecology and Biology courses. She also serves as a member of the Genetically Modified Organisms (Control of Release) Expert Group and the Kadoorie Agricultural Aid Loan Fund Committee.

Ms. KWAN Sau-wan

Ms. Kwan Sau-wan has served as a principal for forty years in different districts including the Islands, Wong Tai Sin, the North and Kwun Tong. Ms. Kwan focuses much on educating the students in protecting the environment and promotes environmental protection activities both at school and in the community. She advocates green living for students and parents.

Mr. LAM Chung-lun, Billy, GBS, JP

Mr. LAM Chung-lun, Billy, GBS, JP is a Member of The Lantau Development Advisory Committee, Member of The Standing Committee on Disciplined Services

Salaries and Conditions of Service, Member of The Court of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Director of Life Education Activity Programme, Director of BC Consultancy Services Ltd, Independent Non-executive Director of Minmetals Land Limited, Honorary President of Hong Kong Wushu Union, former Managing Director of Urban Renewal Authority, and former CEO of Hong Kong Airport Authority.

Dr. LAU Tai Wai, David

Dr. LAU Tai Wai David is a botanist, who has led research projects with applications of plant taxonomy, herbal authentication and pharmacology. He is now a Curator of the Shiu-Ying Hu Herbarium in the School of Life Sciences at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and is responsible for managing the "Hong Kong Flora and Vegetation" project. His research and education interests include local biodiversity, plant taxonomy, Chinese medicine authentication and herbal gardening. He has extensive experience in organising botanical field studies in the countryside of Hong Kong.

Ar. LEE Chung-ming, Eric

Ar. LEE Chung-ming, Eric is an experienced conservation architect and heritage consultant of over 20 years of experience, registered architect, Member of HKIA, HKICON and ICOMOS China, and Chairman of Hong Kong Heritage Society. He is a professional architect specialized in architectural heritage conservation design, research and assessment, focusing on urban and rural conservation, as well as cultural and natural heritage conservation for sustainable living heritage. He conducts part-time teaching on cultural heritage conservation for The University of Hong Kong and Centennial College (HKU) and since 2008, he founded the pioneer conservation courses for the Construction Industry Council Training Academy training local construction professionals and practitioners. Mr. Lee had been involved in the nomination and assessment for the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of the Historic City of Macau, Kaiping Daolous, and the Malacca Historic City. He had been invited to Macau, Mainland, Malacca and other overseas cities to serve as an overseas expert heritage advisor or consultant on cultural heritage projects. In 2015, he was invited to serve the expert panels of the Review Assessment for Hong Kong Geopark.

Professor LEUNG Mei-yee, Kenneth

Professor Kenneth Mei-yee LEUNG is the Professor of Aquatic Ecology and Ecotoxicology at the Swire Institute of Marine Science and the School of Biological Sciences, and the Associate Dean of the Faculty of Science, The University of Hong Kong. Currently he is the Chairman of the Marine Mammal Conservation Working Group; a member of the Endangered Species Advisory Committee, the Red Tide/Harmful Algal Bloom Expert Advisory Group and the Genetically Modified Organisms (Control of Release) Expert Group. He also serves as a member of the Advisory Council on Food and Environmental Hygiene, and a Board Member of the Ocean Park Corporation.

Ms. MA Miu-wah, Katherine

Ms. MA Miu-wah, Katherine is the Director of Communications, The University of Hong Kong. She obtained Bachelor of Social Sciences (Major: Geography) at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and Master of International and Public Affairs at the University of Hong Kong. She has been a member of Hong Kong Journalists Association (HKJA) since 1988 and was an Executive Committee Member of HKJA (2001-2003). She was a Co-opted Member of sub-committee on publicity, Committee on Civic Education (2004-2007) and a member of Endangered Species Advisory Committee (2006-2012).

Dr. MAN Chi-sum, JP

Dr. MAN Chi-sum, JP is the Chief Executive Officer, Green Power.

Mr. MO Ka-hung, Joseph

Mr. Mo Ka-hung, Joseph grew up at a remote Sai Kung village and obviously loves the countryside a lot. He always respects the rules of nature. He enjoys mountain walks and jogging on the MacLehose Trail as an exercise. He is a Consultant of Sai Kung North Rural Committee and Executive Councillor of Heung Yee Kuk. He is a computer systems engineer by profession.

Dr. NG Cho-nam, SBS, JP

Dr. Cho Nam Ng is the Associate Professor of the Department of Geography, The University of Hong Kong. He is an experienced teacher and researcher on environmental study, and participates actively in green groups and government advisory committees. Dr. Ng is currently the vice-chairman of the Hong Kong Bird Watching Society and director of the Conservancy Association. He is also serving the Council for Sustainable Development and the Harbourfront Commission of the Hong Kong SAR Government.

Ms. SO Ka Man

Ms. SO Ka Man is a lawyer and currently Tuen Mun District Council Member.

Ms. WONG Pik-yan, Nicole

Ms. WONG Pik-yan, Nicole joined WWF in 1999 as Education Officer at Mai Po Marshes and Wildlife Education Centre to lead the development of school wetland education programmes. She was in charge of a number of resource materials produced by WWF that were widely used by schools and education institutes in Hong Kong and South China. Her proudest work in education includes developing the multiplier training programme for local and East Asia educators and nature reserve staff, helping to set up the Wetland Link International, Asia to link up all wetland centres in the Asia region, assisting in the establishment of Hoi Ha Marine Life Centre and the development of innovative marine education programmes. After nearly ten years working in the field to implement the Learning in the environment programme, Nicole was promoted as the Director, Education in 2010 to lead the development of the education programme for both local and Asia Pacific regions and supervise the educational programme for Mai Po Nature Reserve, Island House Conservation Studies Centre and Hoi Ha Wan Marine Life Centre. Most recently, Nicole took up the role as Director, Corporate Affairs who is responsible for overall leadership and management of organizational operation and external corporate affairs.

- End -